

ROB PARKINSON:
FEES FOR SCHOOL & LIBRARY VISITS
Academic Year 2009 - 10

*N.B. These are standard fees. See note below re. low season and small school discounts.
See separate lists for fees for public venues and adult training workshops.*

Single hour performance: £120 plus basic travel costs

Half day: £220 plus basic travel costs

Full day: £335 plus basic travel costs

Full day plus evening performance: from £385 (depending on the length of the evening performance)

Evening performance only: usually from £200

Extended projects & residencies: usually from £200 per day but lower fees are possible sometimes.

Day fees may be shared between two schools/libraries, though it is usually only practical to move sites at lunchtime. Fees quoted assume that audiences for extended assembly performances will be under 200 and for workshops, up to 40. Special charges may be made where long sessions with larger audiences are required.

Travel costs are charged at a relatively low level, usually adding between £15 and £25 for journeys over 50 miles and under 150 miles. Travel costs are usually estimated and agreed in advance. Please ask for an estimate.

Discount periods for school visits are all of September and January. Also often the first two weeks of May and the final week of the Summer Term. Discounts may be available at other times, especially for schools with very limited funds. Discounts during these 'low season' periods are between 7% and 12%

Other discounts:

5% for early booking (at least four months in advance).

5 to 10% loyalty discount for a return visit to a school.

Up to 12% for local schools depending on time of year.
